Aatique	4/4/05 ¹	202-03	Do you know whether the defendant was present when this discussion was going on? THE WITNESS: You mean the discussion about LET and going to training? THE COURT: Yes. THE WITNESS: I remember him being present for, for this discussion, although I'm sure part of it happened also after he had gone. * * * Q. What was said to your recollection about the need for training while Mr. Timimi was present? A. After he had given his talk, this thing came up about -- he was still there -- about going to LET and getting the training, and at that time . . .
Kwon	4/5/05	470-71	Q. How often did you see him at the houses of your friends from Dar al-Arqam? A. Not very often. I only recall twice at the house of Ibrahim Hamdi. . . Once before [Hamdi] left for LET and once after he had come back from LET camp. . . . I remember that was before because the talk we had that night was regarding LET, where Randall Royer was talking about it, and Ibrahim hadn't gone yet, so, you know, we were listening to him talk about LET.²
Kwon	4/5/05	490	It was, it was just a talk [Timimi] was giving to us, and he said this in prelude for Royer to talk about his experience at LET.
Kwon	4/7/05	28	[Royer] just told us that, you know, how when he was at the camp, that his faith was very high. He one time also told me when he was with LET, he traveled with a group of LET mujahideen to the border, where they shot mortar fires into Indian positions.

² At the meeting at Hamdi's house in 2000, before Hamdi left for LET, Royer described his own time at LET, when Royer was allowed to fire against Indian positions in Kashmir. Then, at the meeting that occurred after Hamdi returned, Hamdi talked about his own firing on Indian positions in Kashmir.
